Re Indian marriage.

The former Miss Charlotte Wegrzyn studied at the school of Mr Deman typewriting and shorthand. She became employed at her husbands office as shorthand typist in his office in the East Seward Road. When he removed into town with his office his wife went with him and became later his friend. The parents of the wife firstly opposed to the marriage but agreed afterwards. The parents of the wife are occupied with the sale of carpets mats and so on. The husband enjois a very good reputation.
